F☺☺LISH

Listen up, boys,
I'm gonna die
the seconds counting to my final cry ah!

Mark my words, y'see I'm breathing in the open gates to Hell

I'll say, the thought of death and I
A merry couple laughing' at the likes of you

Human toxins

I mean, take a guess...
Why should I stick around?

Many back doors
And many methods
Take your chances with a life worth losing

Simple as can be, oh,
I could care less
Don't you worry 'bout me

I'll say, the thought of death and I
Disdaining people pointing' at the worthless girl
Sayin' she's something

I mean, look at me

Ha ha ha
My life's a joke
Razor blade drawings
Color and ruin

Ah ha
I don't take life seriously

I'm just a fool
I'm just a fool

Ha ha
I really don't care
Wasting my tears and Spitting out fears
And turning up the Carbon monoxide

I'm just a fool
I'm just a fool

Now, enough of this I'm sick and tired of your constant sympathy for me

Mark my words, y'see,
I'm breathing in a
simply deadly remedy

Those days I'm reminiscing on Mean absolutely nothing to a worthless girl such as I

I mean, what's the point?
If there even is one...

Call it quits, I just wanna die and bloods dripping-dropping

I can't get enough

Staining everything and Leaving toxins hanging
Loosely in the air

I know you'll never give a damn
It's not like anybody even cared for this

Human toxin

Ha ha ha
My life's a joke
Razor blade drawings
Color and ruin

Turning up the
Carbon monoxide

I'm just a fool
I'm just a fool
